

PAL MOORE'S CHANCE TO FIGHT FOR TITLE

Big Elevens Sated To Clash Saturday

Vanderbilt Commodores to Meet Georgia Tech at Atlanta. Sewanee Tackles Kentucky on Mountain—Ole Miss to Go Up Against Tulane

BY BOB FIGUE.

With the preliminary contests having been swept aside, big elevens of Dixie will swing into action against foes worthy of their steel Saturday. Some of the most important contests of the season are slated for Oct. 18.

For the first couple of weeks each year all gridiron squads take on smaller opponents in order to get a line on how the big machine will show up under fire. Then they swing out into midstream and take on the gamiest fish of the school. All Dixie elevens showed up well in last Saturday's clashes and are ready to give battle with their more worthy contestants on the approaching Saturday.

VANDY VS. GEORGIA TECH.

One of the most important contests of the football season in Dixie will be played Saturday in Atlanta, when Coach H. H. Hays' Vanderbilt Commodores will take on Coach John Heisman's Georgia Tech squad. This will undoubtedly be a battle for blood, as both squads rank among the highest in the country, and a contest that will be hard fought from the first whistle to the last should result. It will be a battle of strategy between Coach Hays and Coach Heisman. Dixie's premier gridiron coaches.

The Commodores drew a big surprise last Saturday, when they were defeated by the University of Tennessee, while Georgia Tech took on Clemson college and had little trouble in taking the measure of the South Carolina 18 to 0. The Vandy machine is making great preparations for the approaching game with the Golden Tornado, realizing that it will be the hardest battle of the year for the Gold and Black.

Coach Heisman is confident that Tech will come away with the long end of the score in the Saturday melee and states that while anticipating plenty of opposition, he is certain that the Golden Tornado will sweep the Commodores before them.

SEWANEE VS. KENTUCKY.

Another important football clash will be between Sewanee and Kentucky, which is slated for Saturday at Knoxville. The Sewanee outfit got a good workout in last Saturday's tilt and reports that the Mountain boys will be more than ready to claw out the lifeblood of the Kentuckians when they meet on the gridiron.

The Kentucky squad is composed of some of the best players in Dixie, and the game will be a hard one for the Sewanee boys to win.

The Lexington team has always been hard to handle, and more than once has upset the calculations of some of Dixie's best coaches.

Babe Won't Call, But Maybe Mrs. Babe Will, Hazel

Babe Ruth, the demon slugger of the Red Sox, is on a still hunt for the bimbo who first said, "Gee, it must be great to be a hero." Babe is a hero, there's no doubt about that, but the popularity also brings quite a good bit of unpleasantness. That's the rub. Babe has received more letters this season than he has in all his life. Here is one picked at random:

Dear Babe: If you can love the way I play baseball I should like to know you. I hope I am not too far from you, but when I see in going after him. I live at My phone number is 1-1111. Will you call me? I am waiting for Hazel. And to think that Ruth already is married!
